- Citizen of the Year: This award will go to someone making a powerful difference in the community in ways that inspire others to volunteer. Selection will be based on nominee's voluntary local community involvement and service. This can include, heroic acts within the past year as well as work for charities, community groups or other organizations providing a valuable community service.
- Business of the Year: A local business or company will be recognized for its own community involvement and or by encouraging employee volunteer efforts in community activities. Selected business must be an Oregon Chamber member in good standing. Submission should explain how the company has contributed to the betterment of the community and the impact of their policies and procedures on employee volunteerism.

Winners will be announced at the Oregon Area Chamber of Commerce Annual Dinner April 30th
Held at Maxson's Riverside Restaurant
